

NOW SEE HERE!

HOT ZING!

The New MAGIC LANTERN THEATRE

shall open its doors to the general public this Sunday, November fourteenth, at six-thirty in the evening. Our first bill-of-fare shall consist of those two great films:

CITIZEN KANE

with Orson Welles and the Mercury Players

&

MR. HULOT'S HOLIDAY

with Jacques Tati

BUT ZOUNDS, COL. GASBAG, HERE'S MORE!

AT 8:30 AND 10:30

THIS VERY NIGHT

ON OUR GIANT SILVER SCREEN

(Friday, November 12)

the bearer of this advertisement shall be admitted to either of the two showings of MOVING PICTURES

FREE,

GRATIS AND FOR NOTHING

At Long Last!

You shall have the pleasure of viewing two fine films free of charge and to personally inspect and peruse at close quarters the edifice you have suspiciously watched during the period of its construction.

BRING THIS WITH YOU - IT'S YOUR TICKET

Now then, show
YOUR ENTHUSIASM...
